Soulful melodies by Swaraangan school for Hindustani music

Lalita Sharma, Director, Swaraangan School for Hindustani
 Music, has conceived and composed a thematic musical presentation 'Sri Krishna Sharanam mamah' and can be watched on the Youtube channel of Swaraangan School for Hindustani
 music.

It is being premiered every evening starting 5th July at 6.30 p.m IST. It is a narration and music presentation with wonderful visuals - a spiritual journey that takes us from the birth of Sri Krishna, through his various leelas to the realisation of his divinity.

Poetries of Sri Vallabhacharya, Sant Krishnadas, Sant Paramanand Das, Meerabai, Brahmanand, Sant Soordas, Vilva Mangala Swami feature in this presentation. Students from the Swaraangan school together with wonderful musicians have made this a divine experience.

This would be a 100 minute presentation on stage.

Swaraangan School for Hindustani
 Music, started in 2012, is one of its kind in Chennai, started by Guru Lalita Sharma a senior disciple of Padma Vibhushan Pandit Jasraj ji. She belongs to the Mewati Gharana. The Gharana gives emphasis on voice throw, sur and diction.

She has also founded the Jasraj school of Music Foundation at Tampa, Atlanta and Los Angeles in the US. Beginner through Advanced Level classes are taken online and in person at her residence in Thiruvannamiyur.
